

Dear Hiring Company,

We are writing to inform you that the 2019 Queen City Job Fair (Holiday Season) is fast approaching. The Job fair aims to bring together employers, experienced professionals and entry level individuals under one roof. The job fair will be held at two locations Carolina Place Mall & Concord Mills Mall.

It is our belief that the Job fair will offer both employers with an excellent opportunity to deal with their active and future staffing requirements. Your participation is therefore highly essential, as you will come across the best candidates/professionals in the job market. Moreover, supporting high quality and innovative recruiting, investing in human resources and assisting in the capacity building of Mecklenburg County as a participant will contribute in the human resource development of the county.

The hiring company fee is only $100.
